Nine Firemen Thrown Off-Capt. Mack of Engine 116 Knocked Senseless and

The tender of Fire Engine 113 crashed with great force into Engine 116 at Graham and Montrose avenues, Williamsburg, last night, while both were going to a fire at Siegel street. The headquarters of us engine are in Powers street and of 116 n Scholes street. The driver of 113 took the driver of 116 the Montrose avenue route. Engine 113 crossed Montrose avenue in Graham avenue as Engine 116 approached from Montrose avenue to turn into Graham

The driver of 113's tender, Thomas McGinnis, tried to pass ahead of 116 engine and a collision occurred. The engine was knocked down and Driver Leonard, Capt. Mack and Engineer Kennedy thrown to the paveruent. The tender was upset and the six firemen thrown off. Three of these ay apparently lifeless.

Ambulance calls were sent to the Williamsburg and St. Catherine's hospitals. Drs. Hatfield and Hart found that Capt Mack was the most seriously injured. His left hip was dislocated. All the other firemen were slightly cut and bruised. They jeclined medical aid.

The tender and engine were badly damaged and two horses were severely cut. One of the horses will probably have to be shot. The fire to which they were going was

MRS. LARNER WANTS TO DEFEND. Asks to Intervene in Suit to Annul Her Marriage to Young Larner.

Mrs. Alma Louise Larner moved before Justice Giegerich vesterday in the Supreme Court to be made a party to a suit brought by her daughter, Louise Coddington, to annul the marriage which the mother contracted with Albert E. Larner on allegations that her mother was mentally incompetent. Mrs. Larner was released on probation by Justice Gaynor on Monday from control by the committee appointed to care for her and she contended that she has the full rights of a free individual to defend the case.

Lawson Has a Narrow Escape in Cycling Race.

BALTIMORE, June 24 -Gus Lawson, ithe bicyclist narrowly escaped the fate of the late Archie McEachern to-night at the coliseum Lawson and William King were scheduled to race three ten-mile motor-paced heats. Lawson won the first heat. In the second he started off with a spurt and took the lead. On the second lap his tire exploded and the front wheel of his machine went to pieces. He was thrown heavily on the bank and lay unconscious. King and his pacers were three yards behind. With great judgment and at the risk of their own lives they ran up the bank at a terrific pace and narrowly escaped running over the prostrate rider. Lawson was carried to the training quarters, where it was found that he had a hadly lacerated scalp and was bleeding profusely from a number of wounds.

PLAY IN WHIST CONGRESS. orth and South Pair Score for Hamilton Trophy. The second day of the American Whist League Congress at the Oriental Hotel, Manhattan, yesterday was productive of some real clever work with the cards. Five rounds of the Hamilton trophy, the most important contest of the meet for teams of four were played, and some capital hands were held. The first preliminary round was played in the afternoon and the second round in the evening. In the first round F. H. Andrews and G. W. Kirk of the Philadelphia Whist Club, playing for the porth and south, came out with the top score of 136 N. The east and west pair, W. C. Jones and W. F. Fraser of Minneapolis, made 138. Play in the second round continued until an early hour this morning.

The New York State Whist Club captured

The New York State Whist Club captured the Brooklyn trophy concluded late on Menday night. They proved to be the strongest of the six teams entered, winning five straight games. Gilhooly, J. H. Newman, W. E. Faber Snow and Mulfelder. The club will hold the emblem for one year.

The mixed Progressive pairs brought out some clever tricks. Play commenced in the afternoon. In the first section of the North and South division the top score fell to Mrs. Thompson and M. W. Henins with 13s, and for the East and West W. A. Popper and C. S. Cole made 127. In section B. North and South, top score went to E. W. Radeliff and F. P. Whitney with 182, and in the East and West G. L. Bunn and C. R. Watson totalled 173.

In section C, Mrs. W. B. Powell and Mrs. R. B. Hock made top score for North and In section C, Mrs. W. B. Powell and Mrs. R. B. Hock made top score for North and South with 137, and for East and West 112 was the score of B. W. Smith and F. A. Whelan. In the missed pairs at the evening session there were two sectiong. In section A the top scorers for North and South were Mrs. C. S. Waterhouse and Dr. C. S. Cole with 148-7.8-11, and for the East and West Mrs. J. W. Mundy and H. L. Kent made 154-8.3-11. The best average went to the East and West with 143-8-11.

The North and South scored the biggest average in Section B. with 147-11, the top

The best average went to the East and West with 145-8-11.

The North and South scored the biggest average in Section B, with 147 4-11, the top score being Miss Schmidt and Miss C. H. Schmidt, with a total of 159-11 7-11. For the East and West the figures were 149-7 4-11, by Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Rose.

In the men's pairs first place went to A. A. Carpenter and W. J. Hatch with an aggregate score of 132 6-7 and second place went to I. G. Parker and W. T. Horn, with an aggregate of 137 1-7. Third place fell to H. H. Ward and F. P. Whitney, with 131 3-7.

Prominent among the players were Miss Kate Wheelock, Milwaukee, Wis.; Fisher Ames, Boston, Mrs. E. B. Cooper, Shelby-ville, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Fry, Chicago; John T. Mitchell, Chicago; George L. Bunn, O. H. Briegs, O. M. Metcalf, W. F. Fraser and E. H. Phelps of Minneapolis, Miss Bessie Allen, Mrs. Edward Dewey, E. G. Comstock, G. H. Dixon and E. A. # Country Jay Trots a Fast Half Mile.

At Versailles, Ky., last week the veteran trainer, Gus Macey, drove Country Jay, 2 1014, a helf in 1 0114, the fastest move credited to a trotter with a like record to date. credited to a trotter with a like record to date. The first quarter was trotted in 31 seconds, the last in 30%.

Country Jay last season started in more Grand Circuit races than did any trotter and won upward of $10.000. He was put up at a Lexington winter auction, but being perceptibly lame, they withdrew him at $2,000. If he remains sound all season he is apt to prove the sensational performer of the year as he is very game and well bred enough to take the world's record

The samplest remedy for indigestion, constipa-tion, billiousness and the many aliments arising from a disordered stomach, liver or bowels is R pans Tabules. They have accomptained won-ders, and their timely aid removes the necessity of calling a physician for many little ills that beset mankind. They go straight to the seat of the trouble, relieve the distress, cleanse the affected piris, and give the system a general toning up. The live-cent packet is enough for an ordinary occa-sion. The family bottle, 60 cents, contains a supply for a year. All druggists sell them.

REAL ESTATE NEWS.

Yesterday was probably the quietest day that the market has experienced so far this year. Less than a dozen sales were reported, none of which was of more than common-place interest. It is hardly likely that business will increase to any considerable ex-tent before the Fourth. Most of the leading Saturday, July 5, and business is certainly not expected to show much change until the folhas leased, through Alexander J. Roux, a store at the corner of Union Square East and Sixteenth street, as quarters for a branch bank. In the course of the last year and a half probably not less than a score of branch banks have been established in Greater New Terk by various State banks. Most of these branches have been opened in Manhattan, in uptown shopping and residence neighborhoods, and the branch banking movement has come to be worth while taking into consideration in planning new building operations in certain localities.
